ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is great pleasure for us to express our great thank to your honourable principal Sri N.RAJA SEKHAR, MTech who had inspired a lot through his speeches. He is the only personally who had given the meaning to the technology studies and told us to survive in this competitive world.

We would like to acknowledge Sri M. VINAY, MTech head of the department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering and our gratitude to the members of the faculty of Electrical & Electronics Engineering department for their support and valuable suggestions. His structure approach in guidance has us to learn new concepts; it was really a Great pleasure to work under him.

We record with pleasure our deep sense of our beloved project guide

Mr K. Venkata Suresh Lecture in the department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering, for the stimulating guidance and the profuse assistance. We have restless guidance from his throughout the course of the project work. We should always cherish our association with His for his encouragement, approachability and freedom of through and action we have enjoyed during this work. We thankful to all the faculty and instructors of Electrical & Electronics Engineering.

Their cooperation in completing this project.
